

Feeding

Hedgehogs have a huge appetite, especially in autumn. They can eat up to 200 grams of food per night. Hedgehogs mainly eat invertebrates. The top favourites on the hedgehog's menu are insects, followed by small mice, snails, lizards, frogs, eggs and even snakes. They also eat out of pets' feeding bowls. If they can't find any meat, they will eat berries and fruit, too.